Lieutenant General Bruce C. Clarke
Headquarters Seventh United States Army
Office of the Commanding General
APO 46, c/o Postmaster
New York, New York

Dear General Clarke:

Thank you very much for your letter of 24 January on behalf of [redacted]

STAT

We have been in correspondence with General [redacted] and will keep in touch with him in the future in the event we find that something suitable develops.

STAT

As you may know, one of the complicating factors is that we have a very limited quota of longevity retired officers we are permitted to hire and that quota is presently filled. However, we are keeping General [redacted] application in an active status so that should an appropriate opportunity occur, we may contact him.

STAT

Again, many thanks for sending me your fine recommendation of General [redacted]

STAT

Sincerely,

O/DCI/[redacted]

It is therefore with respect to his general characteristics and capabilities, as I have observed them, that I feel I can make substantive comments. I have known General [REDACTED] since he was a cadet. He is intelligent, analytical, hardworking, trustworthy, of high moral and ethical standards and has an attractive family. I recommend him highly to you.
